

INTERNATIONAL AND INTERDISCIPLINARY CONFERENCE

Discourse of Republicanism: Common European Legacy?

6th–7th November 2020, Prague

International Conference at the Institute of History of the Czech Academy of Sciences, the Institute of Philosophy of the Czech Academy of Sciences and the Masaryk Institute and Archive of the CAS Library in cooperation with Polish Institute in Prague

Conference Venue:

The Academic Conference Centre, Husova 4a, 110 00 Praha 1

<http://www.akc-avcr.cz/>

Programme

Day Before (5th November 2020)

18.00 Informal Meeting and the Book Presentation at the Polish Institute in Prague

First Day (6th November 2020)

9.00 Opening of the Conference and Organisers' Welcome

9.15 Keynote Lecture

Quentin Skinner. Republican Theory of Freedom in Western Political Theory

10.15 Panel I: Machiavelli and Republicanism

Jan Bíba. The Prince is a Book for Republicans: Machiavelli against Tyranny

Alessandro Mulieri. Machiavellian 'Democracy' and its Sources: A Comparative Analysis

Charlotte McCallum. Reading Machiavelli's Republicanism in Early Modern England

Luna Maria Alagna. Political Conflict and Gender Rhetoric: The Republicanism of Henry Neville

12.15 Lunch

13.30 Panel II: Republicanism as a Matter of Political Philosophy

Nicolai von Eggers Mariegaard. French Revolutionary Republicanism: Three Models

Gabriela Radica. The Republican Language of 'Public Service' in Rousseau

Ioannes P. Chountis. Voltaire on British Republican Traditions

Rudmer Bijlsma. Of Savages and Stoics: Converging Moral and Political Ideals in the Conjectural Histories of Rousseau and Ferguson

Adéla Radková. Negotiating Republic: Madison's Federalist No. 37 and No. 39

15.30 Coffee Break (I)

15.45 Panel III: Republicanism in the Polish Tradition

Richard Butterwick-Pawlikowski. How Republican was the Constitution of 3 May 1791?

Anna Grześkowiak-Krwawicz. Power or Participation in Polish-Lithuanian Political Discussions the 16th–18th Centuries

Elżbieta Ciżewska-Martynska. The Idea of Civic Virtue According to the Polish Republican Writers of 16th, 17th, and 18th Centuries and Contemporary Neo-Roman Republican Theorists

Iveta Coufalová. Reflection on Polish "Republicanism" in the Successor Mandate of Augustus II in 1709

17.45 Coffee Break (II)

18.00 Panel IV: Republicanism in the Czech Tradition

Michal Kopeček. A Prolegomenon for the History of Modern Czech Republicanism

Zdeněk Beran. Principles of Republicanism and Parliamentarism during the Formation of the Bohemian "Estates" Monarchy

Lukáš Perutka. Reflection of American Republicanism in the Works of Czech travellers in the Second Half of the 19th Century

20.00 Dinner

Second Day (7th November 2020)

9.00 Panel V: Republicanism as a Theoretical Concept

Alan Coffee. Women and the History of Republicanism

Szilárd János Tóth. Republican Democracy: Two Traditions

Evangelos Sakkas. Republicanism as a Political Language in Eighteenth Century England

Tomáš Halamka. Integrating Republicanism: A Conceptual Approach

Giorgio Schichilone. The Freedom of Posterity. Republicanism in Pandemic Time

12.00 Lunch

13.15 Panel VI: Republicanism in Western Early Modern Europe

Manuel Herrero Sánchez. There is Space for Republicanism in the Spanish Monarchy During XVI and XVII Centuries?

István Szászdi. First Republicans in Spain in the Early XVIth century

Irena Kozmanová. Good Personal Management as a Feature of Republicanism? Analyzing Practice Instead of Theory on the Case of the Outsets of the Dutch "True Freedom"

Arthur Weststejn. Republican Empire. Liberty & Domination in Early-modern Dutch Colonial Rule

15.15 Coffee Break (III)

15.45 Panel VII: Other Europe? Forgotten Republican Traditions

Alberto Scigliano. How Do You Say "Republican" in Hebrew? Early Modern European Hebraic Scholarship and the Renewal of the Republican Idea.

Jan Fingerland. The "Qahal", a Little-known Case of European Republican Tradition

Vlada Gurvich – Aleksei Zavarzin. The Hanseatic League and the Novgorod Republic

Henrik Hónich. Political Languages in Late 18th-century Hungary: The Case of Republicanism.

18.00 Closing Ceremony